

The King's Revolution Part 5 – Romans 1: 26-28, 2: 1-16

1. Share experiences of when you've not been building aspects of your life on the solid ground of Christ. What practical lesson(s) did you learn from that experience?

2. How can we tell the difference between what is "not decaying/incorruptible" (quoted in ESV as "immortality", Rom 2.7), and what is corruptible? What parts of everyday life do either apply to (both generally, and personal to you)?

3. Luke 18: 9-14 - in the light of Sunday's message and the word of God:

a) In what way(s) can self-examination/reflection help in our walk with God?

b) How might this change our relationships with others as a result?
